Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

NextOp works one-on-one with veterans to help them understand how their military training and experiences translate into valued qualifications in the business community, connecting veterans to job openings that match their skill sets and mentoring them beyond the job hire.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

VETERANS: NextOp's employment programming facilitates a seamless transition for veterans from military service to civilian careers. The NextOp employment team works one-on-one with service members to identify careers and industries, translate skills, explore upskilling or reskilling opportunities, refine resumes, and develop interview skills. This support helps each candidate secure interviews and ultimately land a career in the industry/company/specific role they are seeking. Our candidates comprise the most diverse population within the Department of Defense - the middle enlisted ranks - and are uniquely positioned to bring their soft skills and world experiences to the private sector, but often lack the network, understanding of the industry and career options, and specific certifications to access interviews and hiring representatives without our help. NextOp bridges the gap for companies interested in veteran talent. Still, they need to learn how to directly access and connect with the population, especially before or as they depart the active-duty component.

EVENTS: NextOp plans and hosts various seminars, workshops, and other programming events related to veteran workforce development, employment, networking, and corporate partner relationship management programming, typically throughout the country.

MENTORSHIP: Military Candidates can easily register via our website and are assessed by our staff during a thorough intake. They are assigned to one of our employment coordinators, who coach and mentor them throughout the employment preparation and placement process and beyond. Additionally, NextOp works closely to connect our candidates and their family members with other mentorship programs and resources, ensuring a successful transition to the civilian community and workforce for both them and their families.

CORPORATE PARTNERS: NextOp's Corporate Partners are among the most well-respected industry companies that truly value military skills and experience. NextOp works with our Corporate Partners to develop a military-friendly work culture centered on establishing a veteran affinity group and streamlining military recruiting processes. NextOp meets companies where they are to support their veteran employment goals, whether consulting on establishing veteran hiring initiatives, evaluating past progress and establishing next steps, or speaking to key stakeholder groups within companies to highlight the veteran employee value proposition and dispel any myths.

NextOp experienced a very successful 2024, placing 773 candidates at an all-time high average salary of $67,400.
